NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20506

December 21, 1983

Mr. Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Fitzwater:

This is to advise you that we are proceeding with the full implementation of National Security Decision Directive 84, "Safeguarding National Security Information," except as its implementation is delayed by legislation or the need to express specific policies in greater detail. To this end, this office has completed its review of your draft regulations implementing NSDD-84, and has determined that they satisfy the requirements of the President's Directive.

You should proceed expeditiously with the promulgation of these regulations, with a target date no later than one month from your receipt of this letter. However, for the time being your regulations should include no provisions pertaining to the subjects of prepublication review or the use of polygraphs. You should have now received or will be receiving shortly more specific instructions from the Intelligence Community concerning Form 4193, "Sensitive Compartmented Information Nondisclosure Agreement," which relates, in part, to prepublication review. Similarly, we will address in greater detail the policies related to the use of the polygraph, as well as instructions for agency compliance, in subsequent correspondence.

Sincerely,

Kenneth E. deGraffenreid
Director for Intelligence Programs
